Don't Forget about Home Study Courses

Local Instructor

Gerald Tostowaryk is now approved by REIC to instruct REIC 2600 Ethics and Business Practice and soon should be approved to instruct 2360 and 2361, The Leasing Process courses.

Gerald was originally licensed in 1991 and sold residential properties until 1996. He then brokered his own brokerages for many years, and also sold and leased commercial properties since 2003.

He taught most modules of the Real Estate Licensing program for AREA from 1999 to 2012. He is currently licensed with Century 21 Urban Realty practicing in commercial sales and leasing as well as residential sales. He holds his FRI and has almost completed his CLO designation.

Condolences

Our condolences to the family and friends of Lucien Roy who passed away May 25, 2016. Lucien was a currently serving on the local REIC board and had participated on the local board for seven of the past ten years. Lucien was a past REIC National President, he received the REIC Emeritus award in 2011. Lucien contributed greatly to REIC and the Property Management Industry, he had many friends in the Real Estate world. Lucien celebrated 20 years with REIC in 2015. Lucien will be sadly missed as a friend and colleague, his encouraging words, smiling face and caring attitude are what made him so special,
